

Seating / Stools

CH0022

With Claudio Bellini's unique design, CH0022 stools create a distinctively different space. Put them out for people to sit on where simple collaboration and meetings take place, and they will help facilitate brilliant ideas.

Mobility

Handle and shape for free mobility wherever it is needed.

Rocking base

A structure that gives a slight, smooth movement just like sitting at a rocking stone, which supports high activity.

Cushioned seat

Creates a comfortable feeling by absorbing shock when seated.

360 degrees rotation

Rotation function for easy directional change.
